

Albín Bráf Conference

30|5|2018

MIAS School of Business

Organizer:

Czech Technical University
MIAS School of Business

The CTU MIAS School of Business invites you to participate in the Third Annual Albín Bráf Conference, to be held on May 30, 2018 in Prague. We thus take up the long tradition in teaching economics at the Czech Technical University in Prague, associated with the name of the eminent Czech economist Albín Bráf (1851-1912).

Participants:

Teachers, Researchers,
Business Professionals

The Conference provides a broad forum for academic faculty, professionals, as well as students, to discuss current issues in economics, management and various interdisciplinary domains pursued at technical universities. In particular, we invite presentations on innovative practices in research, business and teaching, the transfer of current theoretical and practical knowledge into education, and best practices in the cooperation between universities and industry.

Schedules:

Registration by 18|3|2018
Submissions by 16|4|2018
Conference 30|5|2018

Language:

English, Czech, Slovak

Papers received in English, Czech or Slovak will be peer-reviewed and published in the Conference Proceedings.

Venue:

Praha 6 (CTU Campus)

Preliminary registrations, including the name of the participant, work affiliation and position, as well as proposed form of presentation (panel discussion / presentation in section / published paper / poster), together with the title of the paper and its brief characterization, should be submitted by March 18, 2018 to braf@muvs.cvut.cz, where applicants will receive further information on conference organization and paper format. Submission of full papers for review will then be expected by April 16, 2018.

Registration fees:

none (for timely submitted and presented papers)

Besides specialized sections, the Conference program in 2018 will include two panels, focusing on current issues in education internationalization and logistics and supply chain management, under the patronage the International Visegrad Fund and the Czech Logistics Association.

Contact details:

braf@muvs.cvut.cz
www.muvs.cvut.cz/braf

-
- Visegrad Fund
-
-

Lenka Švecová, PhD | Dean of the CTU MIAS School of Business
Jan Vlachý, PhD | Chairman of the Conference Organizing Committee