Kolejní 2637/2a
160 00 Praha 6 – Dejvice
Czech Republic

5. Admission test and interview

1. Admission test is in the form of written test which consists of two parts:
 - test from mathematics,
 - test from English language.

The scope of the test and the specimen of the test will be published on <http://www.muvs.cvut.cz>.

The Admission Test Invitation will be sent to the e-mail address given on the application form. If an applicant is resident in the Czech Republic at the time of the test or interview he/she can conduct the test and interview in person at MIAS after agreement by the admissions committee. The rules described below apply to the remote testing.

2. Applicants are expected to have a good command of spoken and written English at least at B2 level which will be verified during the test. The level of spoken English knowledge is assessed during online interviews with the members of the admission committee.
3. The director of MIAS will forgive the obligation to pass the English language test to those applicants who:
 - a) are native speakers and completed their secondary education in English
 - b) completed university education in English

The applicants who will be exempted from the English language test, will automatically obtain 40 points from this part of the admission test and will have to pass the exam from mathematics only.

4. The technology required for the online admission is a device with a camera and microphone and installed web browser supporting the WebRTC technology (recommended browsers are Chrome and Firefox). It is the responsibility of each applicant to ensure access to such technology. All the details will be sent to the applicants by e-mail.
5. The tests and interviews will take place within the periods of April 12 – 16, 2021 and June 7 – 11, 2021. Within the periods of April 5 – 9, 2021 and May 31 – June 4, 2021, the applicant and the admissions committee mutually agree upon the exact date and time of the online test and interview using email, phone calls, Skype sessions, or any other mean of electronic communication.

The applicant who will complete the English Language Preparatory Course at MIAS and pass the final English test at required number of points, doesn't have to write the admission test from English language.

6. During both tests the applicant cannot leave the room and must remain seated in the camera view and avoid any communication with anyone else except for the admission committee.
7. The mathematics test is a closed-book exam, no electronic communication tools (mobile phone, notebook, PDA, etc.) are allowed, no calculators are allowed.
8. The maximum number of points that can be achieved in each test is 50.
9. After the admission test a 15-minute interview with the applicant will be conducted.
10. The interview begins with self-introduction of the applicant (background, study and work experience). The interview is then focused on the motivation of the applicant to study Business and Economics at MIAS.
11. An applicant will be preliminarily admitted to the study if he/she:
 - a. fulfils the conditions of the CTU Admission Procedure Rules, and
 - b. passes successfully the English interview, and
 - c. obtains at least 50 % from whole admission test.
12. Applicants who met the conditions 11/a and 11/b may be additionally admitted to fill the capacity of the study programme according to the order of the admission test results.
13. The decision on preliminary admission/non-admission will be announced to the applicants via email by April 30, 2021 and June 30, 2021 followed by an official letter..

6. Tuition fee, study contract and other arrangements

1. A necessary condition for preliminarily admitted applicants to be officially admitted is the payment of tuition fee of 110 000 CZK for the first academic year to the bank account of MIAS, see Section 7. The payment request will be sent to the successful applicant by e-mail together with the preliminary admission decision and a request to sign and send back a copy of study contract.
2. The study contract form is available online at <http://www.muvs.cvut.cz/en/prospective-students/prospective-bachelor/admission-procedure/> Each copy must contain all required fields.
3. The tuition fee must be paid no later than by July 16, 2021.
4. Upon receipt of the tuition fee payment to the bank account, MIAS will confirm the receipt by email and send to the successful applicant by post:
 - a. an official letter of admission with further information about registration into the BDSP and about the beginning of studies at MIAS, and
 - b. an admission confirmation letter for the Czech Embassy in the applicant's country, and
 - c. one signed and stamped copy of the study contract.
5. Admitted applicants can book their accommodation in the CTU student dormitories at <https://www.suz.cvut.cz/en/documents>. They will receive accommodation confirmation and thus have their accommodation reserved before the beginning of Academic Year.

7. Fee payments

1. The admission procedure fee is non-refundable.
2. The tuition fee is non-refundable, except for serious circumstances that prevent the admitted applicant from registration (such as failure to obtain the visa to the Czech Republic). In such a case, the applicant shall submit a request and supporting evidence to the Director of MIAS who then decides about returning the fee.
3. The tuition fee does NOT cover accommodation, food, transportation, books, medical insurance, or other personal expenses.
4. All payments should be made by wire transfer. All transaction fees and charges associated with the payment shall be borne by the applicant.
5. Payments by wire transfers: Transfer the money to the following account. Always use the instruction for international payments so that MIAS receives the full amount.

8. Registration into the BDSP

1. Admitted applicants must come in person at MIAS International Office during two weeks preceding the beginning of the Academic Year in order to register into the BDSP. The exact place and time will be published on the MIAS public web page and specified in the admission letter.
2. Applicants who cannot attend the registration at the designated time due to serious reasons must inform the MIAS International Office by sending an e-mail to muvs-international@cvut.cz or by sending a post letter to the address above. For such applicants another registration date will be arranged individually. Applicants who fail to attend the registration into the MDSP and fail to inform the MIAS International Office will not be registered.
3. If the applicant is unable to register by October 15, 2021, he/she cannot start the study.
4. If the applicant could not start the studies for reasons beyond his/her control, he/she may be admitted to study the following academic year without repeating the admission test and the interview.

9. Concluding remarks

1. Information stated in the <https://www.prihlaska.cvut.cz> application and application attachments must be true and complete. False or incomplete information can result in a rejection of the application form during the admission procedure and if discovered after the registration into the study programme in a possible exclusion from the studies.

2. Within the first year of their studies the applicants must complete the process of official recognition of their secondary/high school education by the authorities of the Czech Republic (so called nostrification - <http://www.muvs.cvut.cz/en/prospective-students/prospective-bachelor/nostrification/>). Applicants are urged to assemble all the necessary documents before arriving in the Czech Republic.
3. Due to sanctions imposed by the UN Security Council and the Council of the European Union citizens of North Korea are not eligible to apply.
4. In case of any questions or requests, applicants are welcome to send an e-mail to muvs-international@cvut.cz.
