

INCOLLAB 2021

Innovative Interdisciplinary Collaborative Approaches to Learning and Teaching

10 September 2021

Dear colleagues,

We are warmly inviting you to the second event of the conference series "Innovative Interdisciplinary Collaborative Approaches to Learning and Teaching (INCOLLAB) 2021".

The conference will be organised by MIAS CTU and will take place on 10 September 2021 and offer yet another opportunity to discuss the current trends, this time exploring collaborative learning and teaching.

It is our sincere hope that it will be as successful as our June conference.

Keynote Rachel Lindner (University of Paderborn, Germany)

The subtopic of the September event is Collaborative Learning and Teaching.

We are inviting participants to submit papers on the following topics:

- Virtual collaborative practices in Higher Education
- Designing collaborative/interdisciplinary educational content
- Innovative assessment frameworks

Registration You can register and/or submit abstracts for a 15-minute presentation (180–200 words) including a short academic bio (80–100 words) via the following REGISTRATION FORM. Selected conference papers will be published in a reviewed collection of essays.

Deadline for submissions 5 September 2021

Given the current climate crisis and global pandemic, the conference will support those who desire to present remotely; however, our hope is to organise a traditional conference with speakers also attending in person. Regardless of the hybrid format, i.e. online sessions in the morning and in-person sessions in the afternoon (if the COVID situation allows), we believe there is much scope and potential for a rich exchange in the chosen themes for INCOLLAB 2021.

The conference is part of the Erasmus + INCOLLAB 2019-1-CZ01-KA203-061163 project which covers the conference fee.

For more details about the conference, please see: CONFERENCE WEBSITE or PROJECT WEBSITE.

Venue MIAS CTU, Kolejní 2a, Prague 6, 160 00 (if the situation allows)

We look forward to seeing soon.

On behalf of the Organising Committee,

Magda Matušková
