 6. During registration at the MIAS International Office, applicants must present the originals of all submitted documents for verification.
 7. All documents that are not in Czech, Slovak, or English shall be accompanied by a certified translation into Czech, Slovak, or English. A photocopy of the translation shall be scanned and sent by email or post, the original documents shall be presented during registration at the MIAS International Office.

8. The documents shall be scanned and sent by email to muvs-international@cvut.cz or delivered by post (it is recommended to use traceable mail) or uploaded to the portal <https://www.prihlaska.cvut.cz> or submitted in person to the following address:

International Office
Masarykův ústav vyšších studií
České vysoké učení technické
Kolejní 2637/2a
160 00 Praha 6 – Dejvice
Czech Republic

5. Admission exam (test and interview)

1. Admission exam consists of a written test and an interview. The written test has two parts:

- test from mathematics (10 points),
- test from English language (25 points).

The scope of the test and the specimen of the test will be published on <http://www.muvs.cvut.cz>.

2. The Admission Test Invitation will be sent to the email address given on the application form. The tests from English and mathematics will be conducted online using Moodle platform.
3. After the admission test a 15-minute online interview with the applicant will be conducted. The aim of the interview is to assess language knowledge (comprehension and expression) of an applicant and to verify his/her interest to study Business and Economics. Questions from World economics terminology, company organization terminology and specifics of EU as FTA will be asked by the commission.
4. If an applicant is resident in the Czech Republic at the time of interview, he/she can conduct the interview in person at MIAS after agreement by the admissions committee.
5. Applicants are expected to have a good command of spoken and written English at least at B2 level which will be verified during the test. The level of spoken English knowledge is assessed during online interviews with the members of the admission committee.
6. The director of MIAS will forgive the obligation to pass the English language test to those applicants who:
- a) are native speakers and completed their secondary education in English
 - b) completed university education in English
 - c) completed University Preparatory Programme at MIAS and successfully passed final certified exam from English
7. The director of MIAS will forgive the obligation to pass the test from mathematics to those applicants who completed University Preparatory Programme at MIAS and successfully passed final exam from mathematics
8. The applicants who will be exempted from the English language test or test from mathematics will automatically obtain maximum possible score from the relevant part i.e. 25 points from English and 10 points from mathematics; these applicants will have to pass the exam from the remaining two parts of the admission test. The applicants who will be exempted both from English language test and test from mathematics will have to pass the Interview only.

9. The technology required for the online admission (interview) is a device with a camera and microphone and installed web browser supporting the WebRTC technology (recommended browsers are Chrome and Firefox). It is the responsibility of each applicant to ensure access to such technology.
10. The tests and interviews will take place from March 10th to March 14th, 2025. A week before, the applicant and the admissions committee mutually agree upon the exact date and time of the online test and interview using email, phone calls, Skype sessions, or any other mean of electronic communication. All the details to online test together with access data to Moodle will be sent to the applicants by email in time.
11. Time limit for whole admission test is 60 minutes. The maximum number of points that can be achieved is 35 in whole test.
12. The interview is evaluated with a maximum of 10 points.
13. An applicant will be preliminarily admitted to the study if he/she:
 - a) fulfils the conditions of the CTU Admission Procedure Rules, and
 - b) obtains at least 5 points from mathematics, 13 points from English and 5 points from the Interview, and
 - c) obtains at least 27 points from whole admission test.
14. The director of MIAS may announce an extraordinary admissions date for other applicants interested in studying at MIAS.
15. The applicants will be notified of preliminary admission/non-admission via email within a week after the admission exams ended.

6. Tuition fee, study contract and other arrangements

1. A necessary condition for preliminarily admitted applicants to be officially admitted is the payment of tuition fee of 38 000 CZK for the first semester of the academic year to the bank account of MIAS, see Section 8. The payment request (Billing Details) will be sent to the successful applicant by email together with the preliminary admission decision.
2. The tuition fee must be paid by the date indicated on the Billing Details, but no later than April 15, 2025.
3. At the moment the payment is made by the preliminarily admitted applicant, he/she needs to fill out the study contract form and send it to MIAS International Office via email. The study contract form is available online at Masarykův ústav vyšších studií ČVUT v Praze » Admission procedure \(cvut.cz\).
4. Upon receipt of the tuition fee payment to the bank account, MIAS will confirm the receipt by email and issue an official letter of admission within five days after the receipt of the tuition fee payment.
5. At the same time, a signed and stamped study contract will be sent back to the applicant via email. The original will be signed by the admitted applicant during the registration into BDSP (see Section 9). Each Party will keep one copy of the contract.
6. The official letter of admission, that must be submitted to visa application at the Czech Embassy in the applicant's country, will be sent to the applicant via Česká pošta (Czech Post) by registered mail. The date of delivery and notification of the decision in this way is considered to be the date indicated by Česká pošta on the certificate of delivery.

7. The applicants who agreed to receive the letter of admission via application Přihláška ČVUT, will receive the document in this way.
8. The applicants with visa requirements will be asked, before the official letter of admission is sent, whether they would like to use faster delivery via courier service. The courier service must be ordered by an applicant and all costs associated with the delivery of the consignment must be borne by the applicant. MIAS is obliged to prepare the consignment at time announced in advance; the date of delivery and notification of the decision in this way is considered to be the date indicated by courier service.
9. Admitted applicants are obliged to inform MIAS about the submission of a visa application within 3 weeks after receiving the official document confirming admission to study.
10. Admitted applicants can book their accommodation in the CTU student dormitories at <https://www.suz.cvut.cz/en/documents> and will receive accommodation confirmation needed for the visa application.

7. Recognition of previous education/studies (Nostrification)

1. Admitted applicants who have completed the required education at the secondary schools/Universities abroad, may be enrolled in the study programme only if their previous education is officially recognized in the Czech Republic (unless otherwise stipulated by the International treaty to which the Czech Republic is bound). The confirmation of recognition of previous education must be submitted at the latest when registering for the BDSP.
2. More information on the process of recognition and an online application are available at <https://www.cvut.cz/en/assessment-of-education-for-applying-to-ctu>
3. An application for the recognition of previous education/studies must be submitted online (see 7.2) no later than 30 days before the date of enrolment into study at MIAS.

8. Fee payments

1. The admission procedure fee is non-refundable.
2. The tuition fee is non-refundable, except for serious circumstances that prevent the admitted applicant from registration (such as failure to obtain the visa to the Czech Republic - with an exception of negligence on the side of applicant (f. e. failure to deliver documents required by the Embassy)). In cases beyond applicant's control, the applicant shall submit a request and supporting evidence to the Director of MIAS who then decides about returning the fee.
3. The tuition fee does NOT cover accommodation, food, transportation, books, medical insurance, or other personal expenses.
4. All payment should be made by wire transfer. All transactions and charges associated with the payment shall be borne by the applicant.
5. An admitted applicant shall transfer the money to one of the following accounts and always use the instruction for international payments so that MIAS receives full amount.

9. Registration into BDSP

1. Admitted applicants must come in person at MIAS International Office during two weeks preceding the beginning of the Academic Year in order to register into BDSP. The exact place and time of the registration will be published on the MIAS public web page and specified in email communication with applicant.
2. During registration at the MIAS International Office, applicants must present the originals of all documents attached to the application for verification and the document confirming the Recognition of previous education/studies (see section 7).
3. Applicants who cannot attend the registration at the designated time due to serious reasons must inform the MIAS International Office by sending an email to muvs-international@cvut.cz. For such applicants another registration date will be arranged individually. Applicants who fail to attend the registration into BDSP and fail to inform the MIAS International Office will not be registered.

10. Concluding remarks

1. Information stated in the application Přihláška ČVUT <https://www.prihlaska.cvut.cz> and application attachments must be true and complete. False or incomplete information can result in a rejection of the application form during the admission procedure and if discovered after the registration into the study programme, in a possible exclusion from the studies.
2. In case of any questions or requests, applicants are welcome to send an email to muvs-international@cvut.cz
